Dear Ms. Consroe,

“Our agreement was that I would have a new (better) position on or before February 15th. Thinking closer to the Feb. 15th day as this would allow me to relax a little, though difficult to do with the stress of not working, maybe travel or otherwise enjoy my down time. This is to inform you that I was offered a position last week from a friend who proclaimed “he needed me, and I should start immediately with a higher income potential”. In the future I believe we should be more specific as to the outcome and time frame so as to not allow this to occur. LOVE YOU!!!!!!”—Steve M.

I enjoy the things you have us focus on during class...it makes me stop and think about what is truly important in life. Thanks so much!!” —Irene S.
